OPINIONS OF OTHER EDITORS.

BEST TO TAKE THE BEST.

New York Sun.

Voorhees and Sloan is an excellent ticket. We think Hill and Stevenson or Hill and Coleman would get more votes in this State.
And it is best to take the best.

JUST WHAT IT MEANS.

Longport Union.

The nomination of Col. John R.
Fellows for District Attorney by the united Democracy of New York city is an assurance of the Democratic purpose of the Democracy to give no encouragement to law breakers in the metropolis.

CARLISLE'S POPULARITY.

Boston Herald.

Mr. Carlisle is the antipode of the last Speaker the Republicans elected. Those Republicans who have had the best opportunity to observe Mr. Carlisle praise him most. We are sure that will continue to be the case. Let those with less favorable opportunities in the meantime possess their souls in peace.

GOVERNOR HILL.

Kansas Democrat.

The political sagacity of Governor Hill, of New York, is displayed in every phrase of transpiring political events in that State. One has only to watch the New York journals to see how absolutely, in every move on the political checker-board, David Bennett Hill, the superb leader of the New York Democracy, is master of the situation.

THE DIFFERENCE.

Edinburg Gazette.

Fred Grant has been indu-triously campaigning ever since his nomination, but none of his speeches has yet exceeded six lines. Fred excuses himself by saying that his father could not talk and he cannot either. But if we member correctly General Grant's speeches in the Garfield campaign of 1879 were some of the Republican's most prized campaign documents. But when General Grant was a candidate himself he did not go about electioneering.

HE SAYS THE EAGLE TOO HIGH.

New York World.

"This is a great country, but when Senator Hisecock says that "we make the price of wheat for the world" he says the eagle too high. Liverpool fixes the price of wheat. If we do it, the Western farmers have the right to ask that we fix it at a figure that will give them a profit for growing it." His cock, who is a rank Protectionist, would like to have the farmers believe that we fix the price of wheat, and that it is not high enough to give them a good profit it is because the wicked Democrats keep meddling with the tariff.

TRUE PATRIOTISM.

The Epoch.

The great mass of the American people agree with President Cleveland who said in his speech delivered the other day at Memphis, Tenn., that Northerners "want rest from sectional bitterness, and they know that the destiny of our country is only to be achieved by a true union in sentiment and feeling as well as in name. The business interests of our people are too alert and intelligent to be sacrificed or injured by selfish appeals to passion which should be allayed. They only insist that all the results of the arbitrament of arms to which reference has here been made shall be fully retained and enforced." This hits the nail on the head.

THE FIFTIETH CONGRESS.

Chicago Tribune (Reg).

If the Fiftyth Congress has average political sense it will not disregard the significant notice served upon it by the organized labor of the country in convention assembled at Minneapolis. If the members of Congress decide to retain the present tariff let them let be frank enough to admit that they do so on demand of and to promote the interest of the mill bosses, and not at the request of the workmen. The trades-union classes have deliberately arrived at the conclusion that a high war tariff harms them more than it benefits them; that any actual increase of wages that it causes is more than lost to the extent cost of living which results from it; and that it cripples the farmers and disables their power to buy manufactured goods. Before another national convention of Knights will meet the presidential conflict of 1888 will be under way. Neither of the two great parties seem likely to have any hesitation in the choice of a standard-bearer, but it stands itself of no small importance, especially that part of it which will define the position of a question largely decisive of the cost of living. The politicians of the country will hardly fail to take note of the fact that the Knights of Labor are not fooled by the hypothetical protection that a high tariff is in their special interest.
The seed sown at Minneapolis may not bring forth a congressional harvest, but it is morally certain that it will prove a sort of winter wheat, germinating next spring and bringing forth "seed after its kind" at the polls next fall.

THE TARIFF ON FARM PRODUCTS.

St. Louis Republican.

The most ludicrous part of our tariff is that which imposes duties on farm products. It actually imposes a duty of twenty cents a bushel on imported wheat; ten cents a bushel on Indian corn, oats and corn meal; 20 per cent. on flour; $2 a ton on hay; 20 per cent on animals; one cent a pound on beef and pork; two cents a pound on hams and bacon; two cents a pound on lard, and four cents a pound on butter. These duties do not have any effect whatever, except to protect a few small-fisted farmers in New England against Canadian competition; they do not benefit the real farming interests of the country in the slightest degree, and are never intended to. Our farmers raise hundreds of millions of dollars worth of these articles for export; worth of these articles make up the mass of our exports; we raise them and send them to Europe, where they successfully compete with similar articles produced there. Indeed, so ineffective are the duties on grain and other farm products that not one farmer in twenty knows that such duties exist. The only agricultural products really benefited by our tariff are sugar and rice—and these are raised only by a few planters in Louisiana and South Carolina.
Our duties on farm products are a bald cheat and fraud for the delusion of Western farmers. The protective tariff was devised for the benefit of Eastern manufacturers alone; but because we required that this fact should be concocted and some pretense of equality be maintained—and this is accomplished by levying duties on farm products that are never imported, and can not be imported.
The Western farmer is made to pay a protective duty on nearly everything he buys—salt, sugar, rice, clothing, fencing wire, lumber and tools—but not one cent of protection does he get for himself.

charge of The E. G. Co. He will also ship to-night 48 export cattle to Newport News, averaging 1,000 lbs. W. S. Eton will be in charge of this lot.—Winchester Sun.

The Elberon Hotel and the cottage in which President Garfield died, at Long Branch, are owned by Charles G. Franklyn, now in Ludlow street jail, New York, in default of $300,000 bail, in the suit brought against him by Sir Bach Cunard, of London.

The hotel is valued at nearly $400,000.

Owing to a struggle for super-macy between two factions, ten shares of stock in the St. Joseph County National Bank, of Kalamazoo, Michigan valued at $1,800, were sold at public auction for $4,350. The shares were sold separately, the lowest rate paid for a single share being $1,993, and the highest $12,000.

Capt. Robert W. Anderson, an aged pedestrian, of Sumpter, S.
C., who claims to have been ninety-seven years old on the 4th of day of last July, is in Washington, en route for home on foot from Boston, to which latter city he walked from Sumter. He is walking for the benefit of his health, and is accompanied by a small black and white dog.

A correspondent of the Three Forks Enterprise says that Mr.
St. John Boyle, of Louisville, Mr.
C. H. Stoll, of Lexington, and Mr.
Radcliff, of London, England, were in Breathitt county last week examining the resources of that section with a view of making investments. They expressed themselves as being highly pleased with what they saw there.

Dan Roberts, aged 70, has just been sentenced to imprisonment for life, at West Liberty, for murdering J. L. Kendall, 23 years ago.
The murder took place in 1864.
Roberts escaped his guards while being taken to Owingville, and went West, where he remained until a short time ago, and was brought back by the Hon. J. W.
Kendall, a son of the murdered man.

That the jury in the case of Wallace Carpenter charged with the midnight assassination of his father, would hang, was generally believed, but that eight men out of a dozen could be found who would pronounce him innocent of the charge was a little more than was expected even of a Pulaski jury. But such is the case, the other four being for life imprison-

Things are becoming quiet in Bell. The Turner faction is all broken up. T. J. Henderson, Joe Henderson, Alvis Turner and Dick Pierce are all in jail, and men are out after the rest of the crowd, and will either capture them or drive them from the country. Joe Henderson and Dick Pierce came into the jail to see Jeff Henderson and were caught without any trouble.

The official returns from the recent election in Tennessee on the proposed prohibition amendment to the State Constitution have been received. For the amendment 117,504 votes were cast; against it, 145,197; majority against, 27,693. Thirty-four counties voted for and sixty-two against the amendment, and it is noteworthy that in nearly every instance those counties that had formerly adopted local option voted in the negative.

Ivan Shelby has been arrested in Ballard county, charged with the murder of Mrs. Stephen Moore, an aged lady, and with the robbing of her house of $500. Shelby was her nearest neighbor, and when arrested merely remarked, "It's pretty tough to be taken on such a charge." When the murder was discovered he led the posse in search of the guilty party, and later volunteered to go to Paducah for a coffin, on which occasion he gave the newspaper reporters the first and full particulars of the murder.

The trustees of the Georgetown College had a called meeting in Lexington Tuesday. The question of removal was left open.
The people of Scott county and of the Elkhorn Association were urged to complete the subscriptions, while the people of Shelby county were asked to put their proposition in definite form. It was declared that the object to be secured by removal must be either the consolidation of Baptist colleges in Kentucky or the enlargement of Georgetown College so as to enable it to fully meet the demands of the time.
The matter of getting special powers from the legislature was referred to the Executive Committee, and the Trustees adjourned till their regular meeting next June.

The Versailles and Midway Railroad Company are about to make a proposition to the counties of Woodford, Anderson and Fayette as follows: If Woodford will agree to give $75,000, Anderson $25,000, and Fayette $100,000, the company will build a railroad from Lawrenceburg to Lexington, via Versailles. At the Kentucky river they will erect a wagon bridge, directly under the railroad bridge, which they will give to the counties of Woodford and Anderson, to be owned and controlled by said counties. No money is required until the completion of the wagon bridge, when the counties of Woodford and Anderson are to give $25,000 each.
When the entire road from Lawrenceburg to Lexington is complete and trains running, Woodford is to pay over the remaining $50,000 and Fayette $100,000.
The Louisville Southern is interested in this enterprise.

A PRETTY KETTLE OF FISH.

The exports of leaf tobacco from the United States in the first eight months of the current calendar year amount to 152,454,573 pounds, valued at $12,186,- 860, against 194,060,498 pounds in the corresponding period of 1886, valued at $18,524,478. The average export price of 1887 was 7.9 cents a pound, and that of the same months of 1886 was 9.3 cents a pound. In the last series of ten fiscal years the export prices were never as low as in the calendar year 1887 so far as it has gone, except 1879 and 1880, a decline of 1.8 cents being shown as compared with that period of 1886.

In August the exports amounted to 47,177,272 pounds, against 62,421,671 pounds in August, 1886. The average export price of August was 8.5 in 1887 and 8.19 cents in 1886. The boom has evidently not struck the exporters.

The exports to England in August were 15,968,088 pounds, against 20,265,- 970 pounds in 1886; to Germany, 9,167,331, against 16,476,880 pounds; to France, 5,030,000, against 7,107,770 pounds; to other countries in Europe, 16,198,688, against 18,152,137 pounds.

In the eighth month England took 41,504,671 pounds, against 61,198,072 pounds in 1886; Germany, 31,285,278, against 45,777,153 pounds; France, 13,- 315,592, against 14,161,041 pounds; and other countries in Europe, 51,553,650, against 55,870,778 pounds.

Europe is in short in her takings in the first eight months of 1887 as compared with the corresponding period of 1886, by 47 million pounds, and fell behind further in the last month by 15 million pounds. The exports of 1887 have been running far below the average in volume, and have been at a price the lowest of the record, with one exception. Here is a pretty kettle of fish for a boom year.—Courier-Journal.

GRAND "LORRENCY."

Courier-Journal.

An Attorney—May it please the court, there has been a man in jail for three days for trial here with no charge against him, and I ask that he be brought out and tried.

Judge Thompson—Certainly; let him be brought out.

Enter prisoner, in charge of a policeman six feet two inches, lately appointed in, in blue uniform.

Mr. K., Acting Prosecuting Attorney—Mr. Clerk, where is the warrant against this man?

Clerk—There is no warrant against him.

Attorney for Defendant—May it please the court, I waive the warrant.
Mr. K.—I don't. I want to see the charge.

Judge T.—Who is the arresting officer?

Six-feet-two—I am, your Honor.

Judge T.—Where is your warrant?

Six-feet-two—I have none, your Honor.

Judge T.—I asked the Clerk for a warrant, and he would not give it to me.

Judge T.—Did you make an affidavit?

Six-feet-two—No, sir; I asked you for one on general Informaion, and he wouldn't give it to me.

Judge T.—What is the charge against him?

Six-feet-two—The charge? Grand lorrency, your Honor.

Judge T.—There is no such crime known to the law. Let the prisoner be discharged.

THE CONFEDERATE CHIEFS FAST PASS- ING AWAY.

The constitution of the Confederate States was signed by 40 delegates, 37 of whom are dead. The President survives, but Vice President Stephens died four years ago. Of three who held the portfolio of State in the cabinet all are dead; of five Secretaries of War, all; of one Secretary of the Treasury, all; of four Attorneys General, three; and one Secretary of the Navy; while the sole Postmaster General, Mr. Reagan, is still very much alive as he proved by taking the stamp for Prohibition in the recent Texas canvass. Of thirteen commissioners accredited to represent the Confederacy abroad, ten are dead. There were five men who bore rank as full Generals in the army of whom Johnson and Beauregard alone survive; 21 Lieutenant Generals, of whom 11 are dead; 100 Major Generals, of whom 55 are dead, and 480 Brigadier Generals, of whom considerably over half are dead.

THE CLIMAX.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 1887.

See Garrard county farm for rent.

Dr. Stewart continues ill at College Hill.

A new cottage is in course of construction on the Armer addition.

Lizzie Wilkes has been sold by Capt. J. T. Shackelford to Indiana parties.

On last Thursday, Mr. Thomas Phillips shipped 100 fat cattle to New York.

Lawn tennis has succeeded baseball in Richmond.

The Irvine store now leaves Richmond in the morning and returns at night.

Miss Ella March has accepted a position as saleslady at Mr. H. B. Dillingham's.

Mr. J. W. Crawford has opened a coal yard next to Hingley's stable on Irvine street.

One of Miss Pauline Breck's pupils escaped from Anchorage on Friday, but was caught at Louisville.

Mr. A. J. Alexander, of Woodford, proposes to give Central University $10,000, if others will give $50,000.

Mr. W. B. White, of Richmond, the editor, has been appointed Grand Marshal of the Odd-Fellows Grand Lodge of Kentucky.

The brick work on Covington, Arnold & Bro's, two-story iron front business house on the ruins of the old one will be finished this week.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church will have a Thanksgiving sale of edibles the day before Thanksgiving. Place to be hereafter announced.

Dr. Phil Roberts, with Mr. Ed Wines as president, will open a drugstore at Hingley's old drug stand on lower Main street, next week.

The regular monthly meeting of the City Council was held last night. Within the past month two school houses have been renewed at $1,000 each.

The trip of Clements, who went to Texas some days ago to see the country, has returned satisfied that Kentucky is good enough for any man on earth.

Among the Madison county people on West, who have of late been fortunate, is Dr. R. L. Breck, who bought six acres of land for $150, and sold out for $500.

The two youngest children of the late B. H. Brown, who were sent to an orphan's home in Louisville, have been adopted, one by a family at Glasgow, and the other elsewhere.

Mr. Nancy B. Jones will sell public stock on his premises near Foxtown, on Wednesday, November 23rd, all her stock, crop and farming implements, including a number of well bred mares.

Crooke & Son, an old and well-known firm, have a word to say in a common advertisement elsewhere in this issue. They handle first-class goods and deal squarely with everybody.

The entertainment by the Epiphany Union on last Tuesday night was well attended and entirely satisfactory, as these occasions usually are. The young men acquitted themselves bravely.

The brick work of Capt. J. T. Shackelford's two-story, iron front brick house was completed on Saturday, and he gave the workmen a supper at Joe Mackey's that night. W. T. Harris, contractor.

Samuel Wherritt, son of W. H. Wherritt, of Lancaster, was found dead in bed one morning last week. He was subject to spasms, and is supposed to have died during an attack. He was 16 years.

As executor of H. N. Wells, Mr. Cyrus T. Wells will sell publicly three houses and lots in Richmond, and one share of stock in the Fair grounds. Two of the houses are on Main street, near the mills, and the other is on East Avenue.

Woman's Exchange. This institution will be open every Saturday and Tuesday afternoon from 2 o'clock to 4 o'clock, on Main street, in the little house, known from 9 a. m. to 2 p. m. The proceeds will be devoted to charitable purposes. Patronize it.

Fine Portraits. In the windows of Messrs. Stockton & Willis, druggists, on Main street, are to be seen three fine life-size portraits in pastel of Mr. Wm. Hoeker, wife and son, of Stanford. The work was done by Mr. L. Schlegel, of this place.

Rain. Mr. H. L. Wilt returned from Clay county on last Saturday to find that it had rained for about two weeks. He says it rained nearly all the time he was there, and was disastrously muddy. Narry a rain in Madison for a month.

Late But Tree. The Courier-Journal is a year or two slow in receiving the information, but get it straight when it does reach it. The paper says:

Hon. James R. Burman, of Richmond, who so ably represented Madison county in the Legislature, a few years ago, is flourishing at the practice of the law. He has recently formed a partnership with Judge W. B. Smith, who has long been recognized as one of the ablest members of the Richmond bar. The firm is a strong one, and it is no cause for wonder that they are doing a good business.

The Mountain Deal. Last week a party of Ohio men bought in Breathitt county sixty odd thousand acres of land for $50,000. Messrs. W. B. Smith, J. Stone Walker and C. E. Smith, of Richmond, held notes for which the land was surety, and in the deal a large balance came to the Richmond parties—$37,000, so we hear. Last spring Michigan men bought 13,000 acres in the same way in Lee county. These purchases say that a railroad must be built to the mountains. How is it that in the West miles and miles, even hundreds of miles of railroad are built through countries affording nothing to build, while every mile through the mountains of Kentucky is full with natural wealth?

HALLOWEEN.

Halloween was observed by the Misses Logan, Miller and others, and the young ladies and gentlemen tried their fate with chestnuts, glasses of water and fishing out apples from a washing-tub of water with a young man's name pinned on the apple, showing her future prize in the matrimonial market, causing many good laughs at the young ladies' expense. Quite a number of young ladies felt very badly left Halloween night after sitting up until 12 o'clock and screwing up their courage to the highest pitch to go to the spring alone and look for the face of a lover that appeared not.

Sudden Death.

Eugene Ashton, the elocutionist, well known to the people of Richmond, fell dead in Philadelphia on last Saturday morning. Mrs. M. Barlow, of this place, his relative, left on Monday for Philadelphia, at which place the burial occurred, that being his former home. Mr. Ashton was in Richmond two or three years ago, and closed the teaching of a class in elocution with the play of Macbeth which was presented at Park Theatre. He was about 25 years old at the time of his death, and had a future of great promise. He had recited for the President and Miss Cleveland, and proposed going to Europe where he in all probability would have recited for Queen Victoria.

Editorial Changes.

Mr. Clarence E. Woods, late of the Lebanon Enterprise, and grand son-in-law of Col. R. N. White, of this place, has become one of the editors of the Register. He is a live young man and will make things whirl at the Register office.

Mr. Harvie McDowell, who has made such a valuable assistant editor of the Register, since last June, has taken a position with THE CLIMAX, and will not allow any thing to escape him in the matter of news.

If any thing of importance hereafter escapes publication in Richmond, it will have to be looked up in a burglar-proof safe and the combination forgotten.

One of the Boys.

Turner Sewell lives at the mouth of Downing Creek on the Kentucky River. He has always lived around in that locality. He is now 57 years old and has fourteen living children, to say nothing of the three that are dead. He is a fisherman, like unto Mr. J. P. Cobb, and two years ago walked two miles from home one day, made one hundred and twenty-five miles and returned two hours before sundown. He has averaged four thousand miles a year for forty years. But his days are fast drawing to a close. He is suffering with a deadly cancer that indicates an early departure for "that undivided country from whence no traveler ever returns." Mr. Sewell has not taken a drink for half a century, but for nearly thirty years of his early life he "let 'er peer heavy." Otherwise than the cancer, his health is "fair to middlin'."

A Champion Eater.

Mr. G. Flora, of Campbellsville, formerly of this place, endeavoring to eat a turkey in thirty days, for $500. A Philadelphia man has heard of the effort and says:

"G. Flora, of Campbellsville, Ky., claims to be the champion quail-eater of America. How can this be when he has eaten only eighty quails in forty days, while I have eaten ninety in five days, and seven more at the time? If he will accept my challenge for $1,000 a side, I will make a match to eat four quails a day for sixty days, the four to be eaten at one sitting, or a co-say-you-please for sixty days, and I will agree to eat thirteen at a finish. Before and judges to be selected by a New York newspaper."

Mr. Flora will not doubt accomplish his present undertaking and then tackle the Philadelphia. Several years ago he did the "chicken" act of eating thirty quails in thirty days, and was hungry all the time. He is a brother of Mr. A. D. Flora, of this place.

A "Ten Strike."

We clip the subjoined paragraph from the Register of last Friday:

In 1850 Eliza Owens, an elderly unmarried man at the time, emigrated to California from Bath county, Kentucky. His relatives live in Bath and Montgomery counties, and among them were Joshua Owens, the grandfather of Mrs. E. H. Field and Mrs. E. J. Shackelford, daughters of Wm. W. Emory, who married Georgia Ann Owens, the only child of Joshua Owens. Eliza Owens died in California recently, leaving the enormous estate of $20,000,000. The heirs of Mr. Sterling were advised of the fact and have employed an attorney to go to California to investigate the case. It is believed that Mrs. Field and Mrs. Shackelford will each get from two-and-a-half to three millions, as there are only seven heirs. Both Mrs. Field and Mrs. Shackelford are of our best families and hold equally high positions in the county, and we heartily congratulate them on the gratifying prospect of soon becoming millionaires.

The new Christian church at Speedwell, this county, was dedicated on last Sunday. Rev. S. W. Crutcher preached the sermon. Sufficient money was raised to pay off the entire debt.

Large Sale of Town Lots.

On next Saturday, November 5th, Rev. Wm. Crow will sell publicly forty-three town lots. His property lies on the north side of Irvine street, in Richmond, and between the railroad and the Four Mile or Union road. The grounds have been laid off into lots, with streets and alleys, so that every lot faces a street, and nearly every one has an alley in the rear. One street runs across the property in front of the house, extending from the railroad on the east to the Four Mile road on the west. Another street extends from the front of the house to Irvine street, forming right angles with the above named street, in front of the residence. Four lots 150x120 feet, on the east side of the front avenue face that avenue, looking West, and five lots 40x120 feet, on the opposite side, looking East. Ten lots 40x100 feet, face Irvine street, looking South, and back of them is an alley. On the other side of the alley, eight lots 140x100 feet, face the new cross street, looking North; and on the other side of that street are blue lots 40x140 feet facing Irvine street, looking South. Back of these are lots 150x120 feet, and beyond that are two lots 53x240 feet lying parallel with the alley and facing the Four Mile road, and running back to the main lot of one and a half acres on which the house is situated. The house lot is L-shaped, and about 120 feet on the new cross street, the large part of the L lying back. East of the house are three lots facing the new cross street looking South.

The house is a beautiful cottage of six rooms built by Mr. William Chennault, of Louisville, formerly attorney at law, this place. There are all necessary outbuildings, two cisterns and a never failing pool.

A new street known as Hall's street, runs from Irvine street in front of the Crow property between the natural well and the planning mill to Main street at the cemetery gate. The new cross street, the large part of the L lying back, East of the house are three lots facing the new cross street looking South.
